211 Six Bottles, "The Maiden," 2013 Vintage

Made in tiny quantities, it's hard to find one bottle for sale, let alone six. Still individually wrapped and in their iconic wooden crate, Harlan Estate's 2013 The Maiden checks all the boxes: region, estate, year, and grape. From Napa Valley's Oakville district, fabled for its Cabernet Sauvignons, Robert Parker gives this Red Bordeaux Blend vintage a 95. Wine Spectator says, "The 2013 The Maiden is gorgeous. Deep, fleshy and expressive, but very much medium in body, the 2013 is pure finesse. Sweet floral and spice notes add attractive upper register, but it is the wine's total sense of poise that truly stands out. The Maiden is another recent win from Harlan Estate The 2013 is an absolutely exquisite Maiden."

7001 Beautiful Bordeaux

This pair of Ducru Beaucaillou 2003 and 2004 vintages is a rare treat. Parker rated them a 93 and 96 and has called this marvelous house the "Lafite Rothschild of the St. Julien area of Bordeaux" and these smooth vintages are perfectly drinkable today and will last another 20 years. 2003 was one of the hottest on record and created bold and rich wines for them. The 2004 is a bit more mellow and subtle. Try tasting them together!

Chris Schroeder and Sandy Coburn

7002 Fit for a King

A precious bottle of Chateau Y'Quem 2004 Sauterne is considered the king of all Sauternes. A favorite wine of Thomas Jefferson, the 2004 is an imminently drinkable wine today that will be age worthy to 2035 and beyond. Robert Parker rates it a 93 and describes its generous bouquet, lovely tangerine and orange flavors. Rich texture, a perfect example of this rare wine.

7003 The One

This wine speaks for itself - a perpetual winner and a California gem. One of the premier Bordeaux blends (81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petit Verdot, 7% Cabernet Franc, 6% Merlot, 2% Malbec) and year-in and year-out all the critics agree - Robert Parker and James Suckling both give it a 98 - this is a must-have for any cellar.

Larry and Lisa Siegel

7004 Fine Bordeaux Trio

1999 Léoville-Barton - Bordeaux Blend - St-Julien, Bordeaux, France

The 1999 Leoville-Barton has a well-defined nose, with notes of blackberry, wild hedgerow/woodland, Chinese tea and a dash of white pepper. Very good definition. The palate is medium-bodied, with sturdy tannins, a little pepper again on the entry with very good structure on the mid-palate. Drink now through 2020.

1998 Chateau Monbousquet - Bordeaux Blend - St. Emilion, Bordeaux, France

The 1998 Monbousquet is medium to deep garnet-brick in color with wonderful dried mulberries, kirsch and prune preserves notions with hints of cigar box, Chinese five spice and potpourri plus a waft of liquid licorice. Medium-bodied, it's very spicy with a wonderful core of plum and cherry preserves and beautifully plush tannins, finishing very long and spicy. Drink now through 2022.

2000 Chateau Troplong Mondot - Bordeaux Blend - Grand Cru - St. Emilion, Bordeaux, France

Deep purple in color, with copious chocolate, graphite, blackberry, blueberry, cassis, and ink characteristics in this full-bodied, powerful, massive St.-Emilion. While the tannins are noticeable, they are better integrated than they were when the wine was released, and the fruit, extract, and richness clearly outweigh the wine's structure. Drink now

David Burton and Anne Chrun

7005 Bevy of Bordeaux

1997 Chateau Clinet - Bordeaux Blend - Pomerol, Bordeaux, France

The aromatics on this wine offer flowers, black cherry, chocolate covered raspberry, truffle, licorice and dark chocolate. Soft, round, elegant and most importantly, delicious. This wine has a lot of charm on the nose and palate, ending with a hint of dusty earth in the chocolate covered, plum finish. Drink now.

1999 Chateau La Gomerie - Merlot - Grand Cru - St. Emilion, Bordeaux, France

The 1999 is very good to excellent, with medium body, noteworthy fat, ripe black cherry fruit, lavish quantities of toasty new oak, and firm tannin in the finish.' (April 2000)

1994 Chateau Leoville-Las Cases - Bordeaux Blend - 2nd Growth - St. Julien, Bordeaux, France

One of the more massive Medocs of the vintage, this opaque purple-colored wine exhibits fabulous richness and volume in the mouth. Layers of pure black-cherry and cassis fruit are intermixed with stony, mineral-like scents, as well as high quality toasty oak. Medium to full-bodied, with a sweet, rich entry, this wine possesses plenty of tannin, yet fabulous extract and length. Leoville-Las-Cases is one of the half-dozen great wines of the Medoc in 1994. Anticipated maturity: 2002-2025.

Esayas Tekle and Lydia Haile

7006 Beautiful Bordeaux

1986 Chateau Rauzan-Ségla - Bordeaux Blend - 2nd Growth - Margaux, Bordeaux, France

The 1986 Rauzan-Ségla is held up as one of the best wines of that decade. Now at 30 years old, it has an initially tightly wound bouquet that demands coaxing from the glass. It eventually offers exquisite aromas of small red cherries, cranberry jus, confit dates and briary, a hint of sandalwood tucked underneath. The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly savory entry. Drink now.

Esayas Tekle and Lydia Haile

7007 Premium Barolo

Giuseppe Rinaldi Brunate Le Coste, Barolo, 2005.

Rinaldi's wines have taken their rightful place among the most revered examples of the Langhe's old school... for Rinaldi's methods are among the most traditional among Barolo's truly great producers and his wines are monuments to this approach-powerfully structured, hauntingly perfumed. Rinaldi states his philosophy this way: "It's the opposite of a mass-produced product. It has angles, not curves..." To this end he farms organically, ferments with the indigenous yeasts in his father's and grandfather's ancient tini-tall upright oak vats-without temperature control for a month, punches down by hand and ages in old botti grandi for 3 years. 94-97 points.

Tom Trendl and Jennifer Kaplan

7008 The Best Wine You (May) Have Never Heard Of

Quilceda is not exactly a household name but among Cabernet fans, Washington offers up some amazing and lesser-known wines and Quilceda is one of the best. The 2009 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon is rated a 96 by Wine Spectator, a 98 by Wine Enthusiast and a 99 by Robert Parker at Wine Advocate who describes this vintage as a "brilliantly proportioned effort that oozes kirsch, licorice, lead pencil shavings and dried spice on the nose." The Wine Spectator describes it as "pure and impressively expressive, with focused currant, plum, blackberry and black olive aromatics turning on the palate to a more complex profile, weaving in coffee, creme brulee and chai tea notes, all wrapped in a polished texture" This one is ready to drink now and just waiting for you to take it home.

Steve and Carrie VanRoekel

7009 Fine Italian Red Pair

La Fortuna, Brunello Di Montalcino 2012, Poggio Dell'Aquila, Brunello De Montalcino, 2010

Fortuna - This robust red opens with aromas of black-skinned berries, forest floor, herbs, cloves and balsamic notes. The brawny palate offers cherries marinated in spirits, licorice and espresso framed in firm polished tannins. The wine shows true grit and charisma, thanks to a non-conventional approach and philosophy. The fruit is presented as candied cherry and black currant with tar, licorice and cola at the back.

Poggio - Nice spice, hints of vanilla, licorice, and cherry. A little earthy too. Forest floor, hay, grilled porcini mushroom and stewed plum aromas lead the nose and follow through to the palate.

Massimo Calabresi and Margaret Emery

7010 Rabbit White Trio from New Zealand

Greywacke "Wild Sauvignon" Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough. "Restrained and poised, this is an outstanding rendition of Greywacke's now famous Wild Sauvignon. The delicately fragrant bouquet shows dried herb, clove, almond and nectarine characters with a subtle lime zest lift. The palate is concentrated and impressively weighted, yet elegant and fine, delivering excellent focus and linear mouthfeel. The wine offers pristine fruit characters with seductive savoury undertones, finishing superbly long and mouth-watering. At its best: 2018 to 2027." RC 96, BC 95, RP 92, WS 91, WE 90

2015, Clayvin Vineyard Chardonnay Marlborough, 2015. "The 2015 Clayvin Vineyard Chardonnay is a knockout Marlborough Chardonnay. Nutty, ripe and rich, it offers white peach and grapefruit aromas and flavors, ample weight and concentration on the palate and a long, bright citrus finish." (JC). BC 95, JS 94, RP 93.

Kumeu River "Coddington Vineyard" Chardonnay Kumeu, 2014. "With a savory, struck match undercurrent, the 2014 Coddington Chardonnay has a core of lemons, fresh grapefruit and yuzu with a touch of pineapple. Medium bodied and still quite tightly wound at this youthful stage, it gives and refreshing acid backbone throughout the long finish. It should age beautifully over the next 6-8 years+ (LPB). SK 96, BC 95, JS 94, RP 93, WS 93

Esayas Tekle and Lydia Haile

7011 The Most Super of Super Tuscans

Oh, my. Sassicaia. Such an amazing Italian super star and the 2015 is another amazing vintage. This Tenuta San Guido Sassicaia follows a long history of critical acclaim, with this vintage garnering 97 points or more from all the major critics. Robert Parker's review is a veritable love letter, stating that this Sassicaia "is a confident and proud" wine and that "you sense the quality of fruit thanks to the wine's beautifully dark appearance and the rich texture it offers to the palate. The bouquet is amplified both in terms of volume and length. Its playlist includes dark berry fruit, spice, leather, licorice and roasted coffee bean. Yet, the mouthfeel is extremely graceful and silky. The wine's undisputed pedigree is showcased on the palate."

Lauson Green '84 and Christine Lehman

7012 Fine Burgundy Trio

2014 Caroline Parent - Pinot Noir - Gevrey Chambertin - Cote de Nuits, Burgundy, France

As Robert Parker says "This famous firm, founded in 1650, has one of the highest reputations in Burgundy", and in generations past, they sold wine to such luminaries as Thomas Jefferson. Today, under the guidance of Anne and Catherine Parent, this winery is winning major awards for its Burgundies. This new Village level Red is sourced from the best Parent family holdings. Ripe cherries and red berries, layered over lush darker fruits. Balanced and elegant, but with a crisp clean finish. Perfect with Salmon, or if you want a red for Sushi. Drink now and over the next 5 years.

2010 Domaine Parent - Premier Cru - Epenots - Pommard, Burgundy, France

This is a gorgeous Pommard that shows its terroir - clay with Dolomite limestone. This is a blend of Grands and Petits Epenots. Age of the vines are around 40 years old. Pronounced minerality and focused with earthy, savory flavors in the background. A wine with good depth and charming, intricate layers of flavors.

2008 Caroline Parent - Pinot Noir - Chambolle Musigny, Burgundy, France

An elegant Chambolle-Musigny with a perfumed nose and a palate offering sweet cherry and strawberry flavors. Tannins are firm and provide good structure for a wine that is ready to enjoy now. Enjoy with your favorite duck, goose or game bird dish.

Logan Brenzel and Ernest Massiah

7013 Heart-y Reds

These two California Cabernets may not be household names but they should be. Robert Parker considers the Etude Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon to be an underrated wine (he gives it a 90 and James Suckling a 95) and this last vintage of Cabernet produced by Etude is in short supply due to barrels destroyed in the 2013 earthquake so snap this up. And the medium-to-full bodied 2013 Ladera Howell Mountain Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon, scoring a 91 rating from Parker and a 96 from Wong, is a great companion to the Etude, showing a balance of fruit (blackberry, currant and blueberry) highlighted by hints of spice (cinnamon, nutmeg.)

Lauson Green '84 and Christine Lehman, Yann and Sara van Geertruyden

7014 Mad for Chardonnay

2013 Caroline Parent - Vieilles Vignes - Puligny-Montrachet - Burgundy - France

As Robert Parker says "This famous firm, founded in 1650, has one of the highest reputations in Burgundy", and in generations past, they sold wine to such luminaries as Thomas Jefferson. Today, under the guidance of Anne and Catherine Parent, this winery is winning major awards for its Burgundies. Creamy, boasting peach, hazelnut, lemon and butterscotch flavors, with hints of spice. Shows harmony and finishes with bright acidity and lingering citrus and spice notes. Drink now through 2021.

Tom and Lisa McLish

7015 Two Blockbuster Cabernets

If you love big California Cabernets, this pair is a special combination of classic, tried-and-true winners that are well worth the splurge. Both fruity and bold, but smooth and complex, you can't go wrong with these two. Both rated mid-90s and higher by all the major critics, the 2015 Nickel & Nickel "C.C. Ranch" Rutherford Cabernet Sauvignon and the 2015 Shafer One Point Five Cabernet Sauvignon are true treasures - either for drinking right away or store them away for decades to come.

Kevin and Laura Hardy

- 7016 Fine French White Trio
Veuve Cliquot Gold Label Vintage 2008
Assembling 35% Chardonnay, 5% Meunier and 60% Pinot Noir, the 2008 Vintage Brut is one of the rare vintage Champagnes of Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin. Disgorged in March 2015 with eight grams dosage, the bright colored 2008 has a very clear, fresh, pure and intense, as well as complex nose, with brioche, biscuit and prominent Chardonnay aromas. Pure, dry, straight and elegant on the palate, this is a refreshing and lifted, but also complex and expressive Brut. It also has tension, grip and a stimulating salinity in the finish. This Champagne is excellent and should be served with seafood.
Vincent & Sophie Morey Montrachet 1er cru Les Embrazees 2015
Here the ripe oak-trimmed nose is sufficiently reduced to mask the supporting fruit at present. There is both good volume and intensity to the vibrant and equally mineral-driven flavors that exude a bracing salinity on the longer, drier and more complex finale. This beauty is worth a look.
Chateau Climens Barsac 2009
The 2009 Climens is certainly more expressive on the nose compared to the 2010 Climens with potent honeysuckle, fresh pear and orange blossom that gently unfurl from the glass. Compared to the 2009 Rieussec for example, this is powerful but not quite as flamboyant. The palate is just fantastic, so energetic and tensile with layers of minerally, honeyed fruit laced with spice, sea salt, a touch of licorice and quince. It will be a multi-dimensional Climens that has a very long future ahead, a killer Sauternes that is going to give a great deal of pleasure over many years.
Benjamin Sacks and Carolyn Arpin
- 7017 Pop the Papes
Two bottles of Beaucastel 2010, rated a 95 by Robert Parker, who writes that "this is the mother of all Chateauf de Papes and 2010 has come out astoundingly well. Deep purple, with loads of bourquet garni, beef blood, blackberry, kirsch, smoke and truffle, this wine is full-bodied, rich and showing even better than recent earlier vintages. Wonderful now, but will last 25 years."
Chris Schroeder and Sandy Coburn
- 7018 Adventures in Wine-derland
A carefully selected case of highly rated and recommended white wines. Perfect to have on hand for entertaining Hatters and Hares. "Have some wine," the March Hare said in an encouraging tone
Michael and Jennifer Lustbader
- 7019 Swift Like a (White) Rabbit
2007 Orin Swift Mercury Head - Cabernet Sauvignon - Napa Valley, California, USA
The brilliant 2007 Mercury Head Cabernet Sauvignon exhibits a dense ruby/purple hue as well as classic notes of lead pencil, creme de cassis, black cherries, spice box, and cedar. Full-bodied, concentrated, deep, and layered, this impressive, but youthful, primary Cabernet could last for two decades. Drink now through 2027.
Esayas Tekle and Lydia Haile
- 7020 Oregon Pinot Noir Trio
If you know Oregon Pinot Noir, you'll recognize these three as long-standing leaders among this relatively small community of winemakers. And if you don't, then let us introduce you to three of the best. The 2015 Evening Land Seven Springs Vineyard La Source Pinot Noir, the 2014 St. Innocent Zenith Vineyard Pinot Noir and 2015 Roserock by Drouhin Oregon Eola-Amity Hills Pinot Noir are all rated 93 points and above and any one of them will convince you that Oregon Pinots are a must-have in any cellar.
Jose Merino and Julieta Caride
- 7021 Premium Rye Whiskey
WhistlePig Old World Cask Finish 12 year-old Rye Whiskey is a marriage of whiskeys aged in New American Oak and ingeniously finished in Port (7%), French Sauternes (30%), and Madeira casks (63%). This Whiskey shows rye spice, apricots, plums, raisins, dates, and honey.
Bob and Jennifer Ward

7022 Premium Bordeaux

Chateau Batailley 2005, Grand Cru Classe Pauillac

A very sought-after Pauillac, known for its combination of elegance and power. Stellar and above the rest! From a blend of 73% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Merlot, 2% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot, the wine is dark in color, with cassis, stone, plum and tobacco scents. The palate is medium-bodied with supple ripe red berry fruit, a gentle grip in the mouth and a pleasing, ferrous finish. Cellar this 2-3 years (if you can wait ) you will be well-rewarded! Rating 92-95.

Arden and Muriel Wilkins

7023 Fascinating Pinot Noir Trio from California

Hartford Court "Land's Edge" Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir, 2015. "One of the brilliant efforts from Hartford Court is the 2015 Pinot Noir Land's Edge Vineyards. From a site located only four miles from the Pacific Ocean, this wine has a saturated ruby/purple color and a beautiful concentration of blueberry, black raspberry and black cherry, some crushed rock and spring flowers. The terrific fruit on the attack and mid-palate, the full-bodied finish and intensity are all promising in this brilliant effort. Drink it over the next decade." (RP). WE 96, RP 95

Varner "Upper Picnic Block - Spring Ridge Vineyard" Santa Cruz Mountains Pinot Noir, 2014. "Wafting from the glass with notes of ripe red cherries, cassis, dried flowers and subtle hints of pencil shavings, the 2014 Pinot Noir Upper Picnic Block is beautifully supple, satiny and medium to full-bodied on the palate, with an ample and expansive core of sweet, ripe fruit that's balanced by succulent acids and plenty of incipient savory complexity. It's a beautifully balanced, giving wine and a superb valedictory vintage for the Varner brothers. Drink it now or over the next decade." (WK). RP 95, VN 95

Enkidu "Tina Marie Vineyard" Russian River Valley Pinot Noir, 2016.

"Pale ruby-purple in color, the 2016 Pinot Noir Tina Marie opens with a gorgeous fragrance of rose water, violets, crushed red cherries, black raspberries and baking spices with wafts of underbrush and dried herbs. Medium-bodied and finely crafted with firm, grainy tannins and a lively backbone beautifully supporting the intense, perfumed red fruit flavors, it finishes with great depth and persistence. Only 80 cases were made." (LPB). RP 95

Bahram and Laily Zia

7024 Marvelous Malbec

The Malchiori and Barraud "Cuartel Dos" Malbec is consistently rated in the 90s by all the major critics and the 2015 is another great vintage. Rated a 93 by the Wine Enthusiast, the reviewer found it to have "sweet, jammy aromas of blueberry and cassis. A rich, plump and soft palate with prune, backed berry and cassis flavors that end in a chewy, warm finish."

Greg Love and Jennifer Morris

7025 Fine Chardonnay Trio from our West Coast Wonderland

2016 Joseph Phelps "Freestone Vineyards" Sonoma Coast Chardonnay. The 2016 Chardonnay Freestone Vineyards is rich, bold and luscious. Apricot, orange peel, lemon confit, white flowers, biscuit and honey resonate in this beautifully layered, ample Chardonnay. The Freestone is one of the most dramatic, full-bodied Chardonnays readers will find in this part of the Sonoma Coast. (AG). VN 95, JS 94, RP 94, WE 94, 2016, Walter Hansel "Cuvee Alyce" Russian River Valley Chardonnay, 2015. From Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate, "The 2015 Chardonnay Cuvee Alyce (named after his mother ) is produced from a field blend of Hyde and Hudson Wente selections. This is a big Chardonnay made from tiny berries. Orange marmalade, tangerine oil, honeysuckle and citrus are all present in this beautifully textured, full-bodied Chardonnay that shows little evidence of oak. It should drink well for at least a decade." 93-95 Points

Hartford Court "Four Hearts Vineyards" Russian River Valley Chardonnay, 2016. Already in bottle, the 2016 Hartford Court Chardonnay Four Hearts Vineyard opens with lemon tart, pink grapefruit, pineapple and ripe apple notes with touches of nutmeg and croissant. Medium to full-bodied, rich and with a pleasantly oily texture, it delivers ripe tropical fruit flavors and a long, creamy finish. (LPB) RP 96, VN 92

Fred Turner and Anne Lee

7026 Fine Spanish Red Pair

Two bottles of La Rioja Alta Rioja 904 Gran Reserva 2009

This super classical cuvée showcases the wines from Haro, silky and elegant after long aging in oak and a good future in bottle. 2009 was a powerful vintage, ripe but with good balance. The blend is approximately 90% Tempranillo and 10% Graciano, fermented in stainless steel with a 78-day natural malolactic. The aging was in four-year-old American oak barrels crafted by their own coopers; the wines aged from April 2010 until April 2014. During that time, the wine was racked every six months, to be finally bottled in November 2014. This is usually my favorite wine from the portfolio, where the balance between aging and youth reaches its highest point. It's developed but it keeps some fruit character, plenty of spices and balsamic aromas. The palate is polished but has some clout, with clean, focused flavors and a long, spicy and tasty finish

Steve and Carrie VanRoekel

7027 Pontet Canet 2008

Rated a 96 by Robert Parker, he calls this a candidate for "wine of the vintage." Full-bodied, with fabulous richness, texture and tremendous freshness, this first-growth-like effort is more developed than the uber-powerful 2010. Drinkable now if opened early, will last another three decades.

Chris Schroeder and Sandy Coburn

7028 South African Wonderland

Rust en Vrede is considered one of South Africa's Premium red wine Estate. Their full-bodied, new-oak matured wines are a manifestation of the supremacy of the Stellenbosch region when it comes to the making of truly great red wines. And here are three different varietals to sample - the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2015 Merlot and the 2013 Estate Red Blend.

Brian and Pam Murphy

7029 Premier White Rabbit

2015 Xavier Monnot Puligny-Montrachet Les Folatieres Premier Cru 2

A full-bodied wine with plenty of minerality and grip, Les Folatières is the largest Puligny premier cru and one of the best known thanks to its size and the quality of its wines. The 2015 vintage shows aromas and flavors of ripe melon, hazelnut, and lemon custard and the Wine Spectator gives it a 94 rating. A truly special white burgundy you have to try.

Alaap Shah and Roshini Ghosh

7030 Pair of Fine Reds from Down Under

d'Arenberg "The Dead Arm" Shiraz McLaren Vale South Australia. "Still primary, this wine's wild blueberry and basil scents give it the feel of summer. Chester Osborne's top selection of old-vine shiraz, this vintage of Dead Arm smells earthy and tastes dynamic, its black fruit density matching its gripping mineral intensity. Fresh, brisk and open, this has detail in its tannins that will continue to feed complexity into the wine as it ages." (10/2018) JH 95, W&S 94, RP 92

2014, Leeuwin "Art Series" Cabernet Sauvignon Margaret River Western Australia, 2013. "Deep red/purple: an outstanding color in depth and hue. The bouquet is clean, fresh and alive, with bright black fruit and violet aromas, touches of cedar and toasty oak, the palate very deep and concentrated, with lush fruit and abundant tannins, which counter-balance the fruit and sweetness. A powerful yet elegant Cabernet with a very long and distinguished future ahead of it. An outstanding, profound wine. (HH, Real Review). BC 97, JS 96, WE 93, RP 92, WS 92

Ib Benoh and Andrea Akel

- 7031 2013 Ornellaia
This wine needs no explanation. Always a classic and never disappointing, the 2013 vintage won the praise of all major critics (98 from Suckling, 96 from Robert Parker, 93 Wine Spectator) with Robert Parker raving that "this edition of Ornellaia is beautifully tonic and shapely" and "the bouquet is very developed in terms of aromas this year with beautiful notes of dark fruit, tobacco and spice. Those perfumes are just gorgeous. The mouthfeel is similarly intense with tannins that are still young, but are already silky and linear in nature. This vintage promises a long aging future." It's an indulgence - and worth it!
Bahram and Laily Zia
- 7032 Fan Favorites
If you are a Zinfandel fan and you haven't tried Turley, you're missing out. And if you think Zinfandels aren't for you, this one might change your mind. Turley zinfandels are a great choice but sometimes hard to find and the 2016 Turley Old Vines Zinfandel vintage is another gangbuster vintage, which the Wine Advocate describes as "exhibiting a lovely bouquet of raspberries, plums, cherries and licorice. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and concentrated, with rich structuring tannins, a generous core of fleshy fruit and a long, flavorful finish." It's interesting, fun and a must try
Scott Nathan and Laura DeBonis
- 7033 Chateau de Beaucastel
Chateau de Beaucastel, Chateauneuf-du-Pape, 2013, Famille Perrin. The nose is very delicate and powerful at the same time, red fruit, black currants, blackberries, spices, thyme and lavender. The bouquet is very elegant, rich and round. Figs, cherries, black currants and stewed fruit, all with a great acidity. The tannins are present but very delicate. Blend: 30% Grenache, 30% Mourvedre, 10% Counoise, 10% Syrah, 5% Cinsault, with others.
Rating 94+
Lauson Green '84 and Christine Lehman
- 7034 Four Bottles of Italian Reds
Sasseti Livio, Rosso Di Montalcino, 2015. Rich texture, offers aromas of intense, ripe red berries and a palate showing fruity black cherry, elegant, supple, slightly tannic notes and fine length.
Istine, Chianti Classico, 2015. Iris, violet, perfumed berry, pine forest and aromatic herb aromas come into play on this fragrant red. The fresh, savory palate offers juicy Morello cherry, ripe blackberry, clove and star anise set against precise tannins and fresh acidity.
Sono Montenedoli, Chianti Colli Senesi, Il Garrulo, 2016. Named after a pesky local bird and the sound of chirping chit-chat with friends, this red blended from local Tuscan varieties is full of bright, ripe cherries and finishes with a rustic earthiness that rounds out the flavors.
Il Grigio Da San Felice, Chianti Classico, Deep ruby red color. On the nose, intense and persistent with the typical notes of sweet violet and wild red berries. An austere, full-bodied wine, with succulent tannins and fresh acidity. Enriched with an aromatic complexity that originates from a delicate dosing of wood.
Benjamin Sacks and Carolyn Arpin
- 7035 Pair of Aces
Here's your chance to take home a pair of two venerable California favorites. Robert Parker refers to winemakers at Cakebread as having the Midas touch and that is reflected in this golden 2016 Chardonnay and he also raves about this 2016 Beringer Private Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon, describing it as "inky purple in color, a big, sweet kiss of pen ink, graphite, cedar wood, licorice, blackberries and blackcurrants with some background oak, but it's dominated by the fruit extract and the full-bodied richness."
Michael McCaughan and Holly Mead

7036 California Cabernet Pairing

Hess Collection Cabernet Sauvignon Mt. Veeder 2013. Another sensational effort and probably one of the best wines to emerge from Hess in the last 30 years is the 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate Mt. Veeder, a blend of 82% Cabernet Sauvignon and 18% Malbec. This is sensational wine with fabulous aromatics of white flowers, licorice, roasted coffee, blueberry and black raspberry liqueur, with pen ink and graphite making an appearance. It is a full-bodied, rich and a compelling effort from Hess.

Newton Unfiltered Cabernet Sauvignon 2014. A blend of 92% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot, Malbec and Merlot, Newton? 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Unfiltered has a dense ruby/purple color, a beautiful nose of blackcurrants, licorice, camphor and incense. There? some spice box and subtle background oak as well. It is medium to full-bodied, elegant, and like most of Newton? wines, seems to represent a beautiful crossover between the elegance and finesse of a great Bordeaux and the ripeness, power and exuberance of a Napa Cabernet Sauvignon. Drink it over the next 20+ years.

7037 Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Not So Dumb

A Pair of 2015 Stags Leap Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. Consistently rated above 90 points vintage after vintage, the 2015 Stags Leap Cab is rich and dark, with an abundance of blackberry, cherry and dark plum alongside nuances of lifted violet, sweet cinnamon and clove spice. On the palate, the dark berry fruits proliferate with blackberry, plum and cassis, but there is also a beautiful savory quality exhibiting notes of leather, tobacco and earth, giving this Cabernet a classic old-world feel and elegance. Seamlessly integrated oak and refined tannins provide a smooth mouthfeel and add layers of complexity, all wrapping up with a spicy lengthy finish. Incredibly approachable and pleasing upon release, this wine is sure to dazzle and pair well alongside many culinary treats.

7038 Rabbit Hole Worthy California Red

Dominus "Napanook" Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend, 2015 "Bottled in July 2017, Dominus' more approachable, less tannic sister wine, Napanook, is a blend this year of 93% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petit Verdot and 3% Cabernet Franc. Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Napanook Proprietary Red Wine is redolent of crème de cassis, potpourri, plum preserves and violets with hints of dark chocolate, menthol, licorice and charcoal. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is densely packed with black fruit preserves and earthy layers, supported by firm, ripe, fine-grained tannins and finishing with great length." (LPB) JS 96, RP 93

7039 A Blushing Rose

Chateau d'Esclans Rose Garrus Cotes de Provence 2016

The 70% Grenache for the 2017 Cotes de Provence Rose Garrus comes from the estate's oldest vines. It's barrel fermented with 30% Vermentino, resulting in a toasty, honeyed wine reminiscent of pink grapefruit. It's medium to full-bodied, round and ripe feeling, then finishes long, with echoes of pencil shavings, citrus and melon. It's a paradigm-shifting rosé, but one that resembles an excellent barrel-fermented white wine as much as anything else

- 7040 Three of Hearts
2014 Tamaral Crianza - Tempranillo - Ribera del Duero, Spain
This wine shows an intense cherry red color with a violet edge. Intense on the nose with notes of red and black fruits, and fine wood and smoky notes. After 14 months in oak, this Crianza has a very elegant palate, fleshy and powerful at the same time with a long finish. Drink by 2024.
2012 Martin Berdugo MB - Tempranillo - Ribera del Duero, Spain
Sophisticated. A beautiful signature wine, the grapes for this wine are chosen from the best areas of the vineyard, and using the most modern cryomaceration pre-fermentation techniques. Aromatically complex, silky and elegant, a hint of fruit compote, with sweet mature tannins and a balsamic and mineral note. Numbered, limited production. Pair with filet mignon or grilled Ribeye. Drink by 2025.

A young, but well-polished Pinot Noir showing a bouquet of ripe, seductive fruit following through on the palate with complex flavors of fresh cherry, raspberry and spice. Light colored and fruity, this is all about red fruit--its structure and firm tannins coming out slowly. This village wine demonstrates the richness of the appellation, showing a fine balance between its ripe fruit and its smoky, dry, tannic core. 90-95 pts.

Two bottles of Chateau d'Esclans Rose Rock Angel Cotes de Provence 2017 ($54)
This is a serious rose! Rich and complex, yet crisp and refreshing, this super-pale blend of Grenache, Rolle, and Tibouren is truly impressive. Not a wine to be dismissed as "only for aperitifs", it will pair incredibly with just about every aspect of your meal. While showing a lovely bouquet of summer fruits, it is accented beautifully with notes of toasted almond, citrus rind, and an underlying band of minerality that binds the wine from start to finish.
Scott Handler and Stephanie Gosnell Handler

A truly classic Rioja Reserva, this 2012 Bodegas Muga Seleccion Especial Reserva was rated a 92 by Robert Parker and a 95 by James Suckling who found it to be "a linear and super-fine wine with black cherry and berry character and hints of flowers. Full body yet very tight and closed. Beautiful texture." Always versatile and a nice change of pace, this one is worth a try.

Aromas of dried fruits, raisins and Christmas cake. Some chocolate undertones too, plus licorice and wet earth. Full body, medium sweet with gorgeous depth and intensity of fruit. So long and beautiful. What an amazing finish already. So sexy. Drink or hold. But this will go on for decades.

- 7051 Drink Me
One of Whisky Advocate's Top 20 Whiskies of 2018, each batch of Belle Meade Bourbon Cask Strength Reserve is just seven barrels of high rye content whiskey ranging in age from 7-11 years old. According to Whisky Advocate, this bourbon swirls with the smells of a county fair-candy apples, peanuts, caramel, spiced cookies, and old barn boards, redolent with maturity and complexity. More childhood favorites appear on the palate: cinnamon Red Hots, grape soda, blackberry candy, chocolate-covered caramels, candy apple, and roasted corn, with lush oak rounding out into a peppery finish of cherry cola and roasted pecans. Given the barrel proof, this takes water well.

- 7052      Cheshire Cat Gin
Wild June Western Style Gin. This premium craft gin was a San Francisco World Spirits Competition 2018 Gold Medal Winner. WildJune uses wildcrafted junipers carefully foraged in the West Texas Mountains. Unlike most gins worldwide that use the same Juniper species, WildJune highlights the rugged, Red berry Juniper, that can only be found in America. These unusual wildcrafted junipers impart a distinct earth tone not found in standard issue gins. Great in your favorite cocktail and pairs nicely with sweet and savory dishes.

9004 "Pattern & Contrast" - Second Grade

Second graders looked at the collage work of Henri Matisse to form their mini collage. They learned of the artist's use of biomorphic shapes - or in other words, shapes that remind us of nature. Their focus for this piece was to repeatedly cut biomorphic shapes to create a pattern using contrasting colors. We then came up with a way to combine collages that reflected a visually satisfying balance of color and shape. Approximately 27"x32" in size.

9005 "Community" - Third Grade

Third graders have been learning a lot about portraiture and facial proportions this semester. Approximately 22"x28" in size.

9006 "Unity & Variety" - Fourth Grade

Inspired by the geometric patterns of a classic quilt of many names: Wanderer of the Wilderness, Rob Peter to Pay Paul, and the Mill Wheel to name a few, 4th graders learned how textile design can display visual themes of variety and unity. They each created their own radially symmetrical designs that were split into quarters, rearranged and joined with the work of their classmates resulting in a collection of concave and convex curves making a bold and colorful statement of collaboration. Approximately 22"x28" in size.
